August/September

District Leadership Team reviewed the Strategy for Continuous Improvement, revised Priority Action Plans, and aligned School Improvement Plan goals, and administrator and teacher evaluation goals to the Strategy objectives.

November/December

Instructional Leadership Team began to review and modify the 5-year staffing plan that would support student needs and execute the Strategy for Continuous Improvement. Department leaders and building administrators developed FY23 budget requests focused on highest impact on teaching and learning, and alignment with Strategy objectives. Individual meetings were held with each department head and building administrator to review budget line requests as needed.

The Leadership Team prioritizes the Year-1 positions and identifies those deemed most critical to be included in the FY23 budget. Proposed budget presented to SC on 1/19/22. Updates provided at each meeting in Feb and Mar. Q & A sessions on 2/2/22 and 3/2/22 SC meeting agendas.

Lunenburg Public Schools

STEM / Technology Teacher at LPS

- STEM problems require you to quickly work to make sense of problems as they are presented, and work productively to propose real and appropriate solutions.
- STEM requires the ability to look at and propose solutions to a problem through multiple approaches, including ones that are highly creative or “out-of-the-box.” In STEM, mistakes and failed attempts are positive experiences, offering opportunities for deeper learning.
- STEM requires hands-on, active participation to effectively solve problems. Students are the drivers of solutions and should be asking the questions, proposing the ideas, generating and testing solutions, and making decisions based on data to understand how to refine ideas further.
- The mathematics and science skills they are learning in school are the foundation of STEM and must be applied in pursuit of solutions.

- In solving STEM problems, the use of engineering-design thinking is vital. In this kind of thinking, you must identify the problem at hand, research potential solutions, build prototypes, test, redesign, test again, and iterate further as needed. Each step in the process moves you closer to creating a functional solution.
- Effective STEM learning requires you to analyze information, evaluate designs, reflect on your thinking, synthesize new ideas, and propose creative solutions. All of these skills are vital to becoming an independent, critical thinker.
- Big challenges are rarely solved by individuals. Working on STEM problems also involves learning to work as a productive part of a collaborative team.

Lunenburg Public Schools

Intervention Teacher, LHS

- Provide direct instruction to students who have been identified by the student support team as needing additional supports in order to be successful in class.

- Collaborate with parents/ guardians and student on progress.
- Licensed teacher experienced working with struggling general education high school students.
